WILLIAMSTOWN THEATRE FESTIVAL MANDY GREENFIELD, ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Every summer since 1955, the Festival has brought America's finest actors, directors, designers, and playwrights to the Berkshires to produce unique experiences for artists and audiences alike. The Festival creates bold, innovative theatre, hosts dynamic development opportunities for new plays and musicals, and offers a rich array of accompanying cultural events such as Free Theatre, Late-Night Cabarets, Comedy, and One-Night Concerts.

With offices in both Williamstown and New York City, WTF creates vibrant work that feeds the wider theatrical landscape. Festival productions often go on to reach diverse audiences nationally and internationally. WTF is also home to one of the nation's top training and professional development programs for new generations of aspiring theatre artists and administrators. The Festival is a recipient of the Tony Award for Outstanding Regional Theatre and the Massachusetts Commonwealth Award for Achievement.
